

A Message From NAPR President Courtney Flynn

Dear NAPR Members,

In this season of thanksgiving, we are reminded of the importance of community, shared knowledge, and professional growth. We are thrilled to invite you to the NALTO®/NAPR 2024 Annual Convention, to be held from March 6-8, 2024, at Le Meridien Charlotte in Charlotte, North Carolina where we will continue to cultivate these values.

This convention is not just an event; it's a celebration of our collective achievements and a platform for you to expand your horizons, connect with like-minded peers, and enhance your professional journey. Here's why you won't want to miss it:

1. Abundant Learning Opportunities: Our convention offers a diverse range of sessions, providing you with valuable insights and cutting-edge information in your field. Be prepared to elevate your skills and knowledge to new heights.
2. Networking Galore: This season is all about connections, and our convention is no different. Forge valuable relationships with fellow professionals, experts, and potential collaborators. You never know what opportunities may arise from a simple conversation.
3. Feast of Ideas: Just as holiday meals feast the body, our convention will feast your mind. Immerse yourself in discussions, debates, and innovative ideas that will leave you inspired and motivated.
4. Exclusive Offers for Early Birds: Register before January 15 to take advantage of our early-bird discounts. By doing so, you'll not only save on registration fees but also ensure your spot at this highly anticipated event.

Let this be a season full of gratitude and professional growth. Join us at the NALTO®/NAPR 2024 Annual Convention, and together, we'll create memories and opportunities that you can be thankful for.

Register today, and stay tuned for more details about keynote speakers and session topics. In the meantime, we look forward to welcoming you in March.

With warm regards,

Courtney Flynn
NAPR President
